RE: 2020-21 School Year Annual Professional Performance Review (APPR) (REMAISED June 16, 2021

On June 7, 2021GovernorAndrewCuomosignedChapter112 of the Laws of 2021which was subsequently amended on June 11, 2021 by Chapter 1417the Laws of 2021As amended, Chapter 112 provides, in partat for the 202021 school yearno school districts oBOCEShall be required tocomplete an annual teacher or principal evaluation forany classroom teacher or building principale to concerns related to the ongoing response to the COVID pandemic

In effect, the bill excuses school districts and BOCES from the requirement to complete a teacher's or principal's evaluation under Education Law §30d12and Regents Rules -30for the 202021 school year. The bill also eliminates any state aid penalties for school districts that fail to implement any component of their approved APPR plans. to appoint on tenure those classroom teachers and building principals recommended by the superintendent of schools who are in the final year of the probationary period

• In all instances, the superintendent must determine that suchucators would have qualified for appointment on tenure based upon performance had their evaluations been completed in the 20019 and/or 202021 school years

Thebill also provides that previously tenured classroderachers who accept a position at awnechool district or BOCES in 20-201 will be appointed for a three-ear probationary period provided that they have received an APPR rating in either the 20-118 or 20-1849 school years, rather than in their final year of service, as is currently required by law. Additionally, for those teachers who accept a position at a BOCES, their-28-17 20-1849 APPR rating must have been either effective or highly effective.

Questions and Answers

Can we still complete evaluations if we were able to implement our APPR plan for this school year?

Yes. The amendments to the law eliminate the requirement for LEAs to complete teacher and principal evaluations for the 202021 school year, but do not prohibit evaluations from being completed where an LEA is able to so

Do LEAs still have to report APPR data for the 2020-21 school year?

Yes. To the extent that LEAs are able to complete all or part of an educator's evaluation, the Department such scores and ratings will be reported. Information and resources related to the submis2 Td Divlforeluao2 Tu (e)3 (3aTd ()Tj EMC /P -0.0)4.1 (i)4 (s)10 (e)-1d ()Tj EMb02 (a)14
