

New York State Education Department

Announcement for Candidates for the Distinguished Educator Program Pool

Location: Placement varies statewide.

The New York State Education Department implemented the Distinguished Educator Program to assist low performing districts and schools within such districts that have failed to make adequate yearly progress (AYP) for
