

TITLE I, Part A: Homeless Set-aside Guidance on Allowable and Unallowable Expenditures

Title I, Part A funds may be used to provide services to homeless children and youths, including those in Title I schools, that may not ordinarily be available to Title I students. To help homeless students effectively take advantage of educational opportunities, Title I, Part A funds to provide, where appropriate, items or services including, but not limited to the list below.

Local education agencies govern the use of Title I, Part A funds to provide services to homeless students. These services must be reasonable and necessary to assist homeless students to take advantage of educational opportunities.

Allowable Expenditures	Unallowable Expenditures
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Items of clothing and shoes necessary for participation in classes</li> <li>• Student fees that are necessary to participate in the general education program</li> <li>• Personal school supplies such as backpacks, notebooks, and remote learning devices such as internet and/or laptop/tablet</li> <li>• The acquisition of birth certificates</li> <li>• Immunizations</li> <li>• Food</li> <li>• Services</li> <li>• Eyeglasses and hearing aids by the PTA) used to provide similar services for economically disadvantaged students.</li> <li>• Counseling services related to homeless issues that are impeding learning</li> <li>• Outreach services</li> <li>• Extended learning time (before and after school, Saturday, summer)</li> <li>• Extra-curricular activity fees</li> <li>• Tutoring services, especially in shelters or other locations where homeless students are residing</li> <li>• Parental involvement</li> <li>• Fees for AP, IB, SAT/ACT, GED testing</li> </ul>	